Brampton Sports Hall of Fame Nomination Sub-Committee Meeting
Flower City Community Campus – Building E
Thursday, September 19, 2024
6:30pm

Attendees: Norman Da Costa (chair), Ziggy Musial, Patty Grassam, Beth Cooper, Ron Noonan, Frank Juzenas

Regrets: Glenn McClelland, Nicholas Moreau, Glenn McIntyre

Meeting Minutes:

- Purpose of meeting is to review all nominations received to date to ensure that they meet eligibility criteria as outlined in the constitution.
- Glenn McClelland & Nicholas Moreau were unable to attend but submitted their written feedback/comments for discussion.
- 9 nominations were received for consideration and reviewed individually to determine eligibility.
- One nomination was considered incomplete, further information is required – communication will be sent to the nominator informing them of this decision and offering opportunity to re-submit for next year
- One nomination did not meet the eligibility criteria as their contribution to local sport was as a sports business owner/operator – a communication will be sent to the nominator informing them of this decision
- One nomination's category was revised from athlete to builder
- One member suggested that nominations be reviewed prior to these meetings and any incomplete forms returned to the nominator instead of forwarded to the Nomination Sub-Committee. As per the constitution the nomination chair shall call a meeting of the sub-committee "to review and discuss the list of all nominations received, and to develop a finalized list of nominees going forward for discussion at the annual election meeting. Such review of the nomination forms received must ensure that all nomination forms brought forward to the annual election meeting are eligible for consideration and properly completed as per the approved criteria."
