What Our Community Says About Noon Academy

NOOR Abaity

“The community is so diverse and so inclusive. There are so many different kinds of people from all sorts of different backgrounds, anyone can become a part of this lovely community. It really feels like one big ever-growing family. I highly recommend dropping by some time, you'll feel the connection instantly, subhanAllah.”

Danyal Patel

“Noon Academy is a place where my kids grow in their Academic and Islamic Education. It's a great place to learn the importance of having good character and being proudly Muslim. Thanks for all your support and making the school a great place for our community and our kids to be a part of.”

Farhan Kever

“Noon academy has an amazing principal, and fantastic teachers. Sheikh Walid is a humble leader, the community center has a family atmosphere.”

SANA Malik

“Noon Academy is a beautiful and welcoming community mashaAllah. They’re very inclusive and going there makes you feel like you’re apart of family:)” best, also thanking her for staying in our home during her visit.
