| Subject Matter to be Discussed: | Emerald EFW Energy from Waste A privately-owned waste incinerator on the border between Brampton and Mississauga is planning to quadruple its operations to become the largest waste burning facility in Canada. The expansion would load even more dangerous pollutants into your community, which is already burdened by heavy air pollution from industry and transportation. |
| Request to Council/Committee: | 1. Send a letter to Minister Khanjin asking for an Individual Environmental Assessment of the Project, copying local MPPs. 2. Request that Peel Council support Brampton Council by sending its own letter to Minister Khanjin calling for an IEA and directing Peel Public Health to obtain further data on the community health impacts of the current incinerator and proposed expansion, and provide a report to both Councils in autumn 2024.3. Direct Peel public health staff to report back to Brampton Council on the Minister's decision and propose next steps based on her decision. |
