

Appendix A:*Current Municipal Public Art Projects*Permanent Public Art Projects Currently Underway or Being Initiated

Title	Description	Location
Brampton Fire & Emergency Services Memorial	Development of a memorial installation at the new Williams Parkway Fire Campus (opening in 2023) to honour Brampton's fallen firefighters.	Williams Parkway Fire Campus
Emancipation Memorial	Development of a memorial at Emancipation Park acknowledging the legacy and importance of Emancipation Day.	Emancipation Park
William G. Davis Memorial	Development of a public art installation to honour the late, former Premier of Ontario and celebrated Bramptonian, William G. Davis.	Downtown Brampton

There are several Temporary Public Art Projects currently underway and that have been brought forward by various operating departments for exploration of feasibility with Cultural Services, in support of the placemaking, community building and economic development benefits articulated in this report.