2016

Ontario Ministry of Advanced Education and Skills Development identified Brampton as a target location for building a new post-secondary facility

Appendix A – High Level Summary of Research Reports and Activities

Call for Proposal to Ontario Universities required that City staff resolve several issues and:

- provide an initial update to City Council and Economic Development Committee
- significantly update and expand the analysis of the Brampton student populations over the next decades
- outline implications for students of a focused university on science, technology, engineering, arts and math
- provide for a new and detailed outreach to the Brampton business community, post-secondary institutions and other stakeholders
- seek deeper insights into the "Building the Workforce of Tomorrow: A Shared Responsibility" report - authored by Mr Sean Conway
- understand future roles for the Brampton business community and the new university for its students, graduates and desired research and commercialization investments

Creation of the Blue Ribbon Panel

- Mayor Jeffrey established the Blue Ribbon Panel in 2015 to provide recommendations with respect to Brampton's post-secondary options, and to provide a realistic and achievable work plan for a university campus in Brampton. Among the Panel's achievements was the development of an Economic Impact Statement for a university, extensive outreach to universities and the Province, and liaison with key stakeholders in Brampton and surrounding areas.
