CONTRIBUTORS OPINION

We need to act now to secure Brampton’s automotive future

As long-term investment decisions for electric vehicle facilities are being made now, Canada needs to step up to ensure we don't miss opportunities.

BRAMPTON'S AUTO FORUM

- A forum was held on February 15th, 2022 to discuss:
 - The importance of Stellantis' Brampton Assembly Plant (BAP) to our city / need for investment to secure the plant's future (Unifor national and local 1285)
 - The automotive parts manufacturers that serve BAP (APMA)
 - Canada's activities to support the automotive sector (ISED)
 - Ontario's automotive strategy "Driving Prosperity" (MEDJCT)

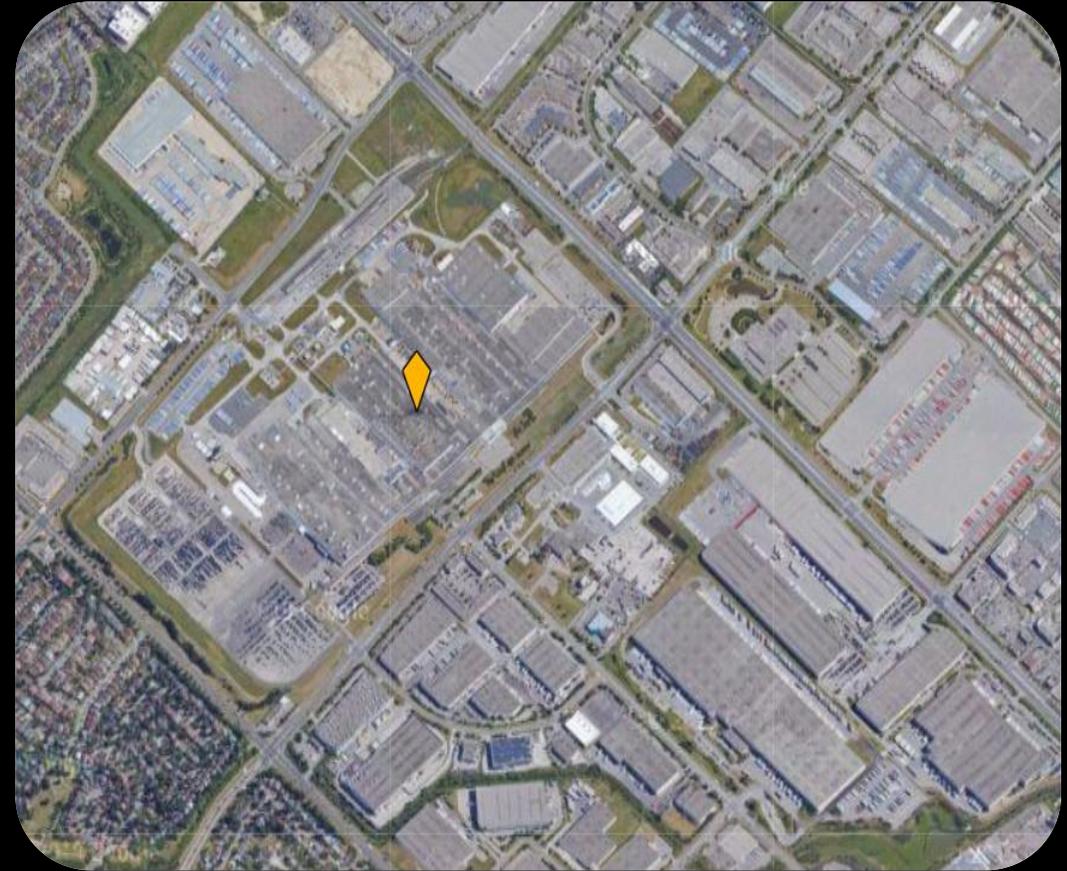

Driving Prosperity:

Ontario's
Automotive Plan

Phase 2

AUDIENCE & OBJECTIVES

- Invitations sent to relevant Ministers, local MPs & MPPs, Brampton City Council and stakeholders (APMA, Trillium Network for Advanced Manufacturing)
- Objectives:
 - Create awareness about the importance of the plant (e.g., 3000 direct jobs + 5-6x job multiplier)
 - Create a greater understanding of the need for investment
