Brampton, Ontario, L6R 3T5

A-2022-0312

September 15, 2022

To Whom It Might Concern:

My name is Bao Truong and I am authorized by my client, Taijpaul Narain, at the address 32 Arrowstone Court, to apply for minor variance for his second unit dwelling in the basement. During zoning pre-screening process, it was determined that this house did not have the required clear path of travel. The house has an existing side door by the builder which was intended to be used as a primary entrance for the Second Unit Dwelling. As per zoning, it requires 1.2m clear path of travel to get to the side door, but this house is sitting on a pie shape lot and it only has 1.13m setback at the front of the house which is short by 0.07m. Homeowner will greatly appreciate if he could get a relief from zoning restriction to reduce this clear path of travel to 1.13m. Thank you so much for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Bao Truong

3. Nature and extent of relief applied for (variances requested):
The homeowner applied for second unit dwelling basement apartment for this property, the house has a sidedoor which is intended to be used as the main entrance for the second unit dwelling. As per zoning, it requires 1.2 m clear path of travel to get to the sidedoor, but this house sitting on a pie shape lot and it only has 1.13 m setback which is short by 0.07 m.
