Subject Matter to be Discussed:	This is purely a residential zone and I think with 94 parking spaces, we are looking into bringing the traffic into a peaceful residential area. Moreover, smaller streets in surrounding locations are not able to tackle such traffic. It is a kids friendly community and we do not want any incident like we had at Athabasca Drive in Vaughan and one today at Steeles Ave and Heritage Rd. We are not ready to
Action Requested:	This part of neighbourhood has no parks and that's the only green patch providing some fresh air during summers and fall without which only pollution increases because of HWY50. Creating a public place like this only adds to pollution leading to health problems for residents.
