RE: Agenda Item 6.4 2022 Municipal and School Board Election – Clerk’s Review of Campaign Contributions – R. Davis COMPLIANCE AUDIT MEETING JUNE 29, 2023

I recently received a letter from the Brampton City Clerk suggesting that I had contributed goods or services that exceed the $1200 limit as prescribed by the Municipal Elections Act.

The amount I quoted you was the amount on the invoice for the 500 signs I purchased for your campaign - $1200.41. However, in order to stay in compliance with the donation limit, I only delivered and donated 499 signs to your home during the campaign.

I believe you erroneously listed the full purchase price of 500 lawn signs in your financial filing and not the value of the 499 signs actually donated in-kind to your campaign. Thus, my in-kind donation was $1198.00.

For certainty, I have kept the one sign in storage at my home. Please see the attached photo.

Please take the time to amend your financial filing, if possible, so that it reflects the true value of my in-kind contribution to your campaign and leaves no doubt that I donated an amount allowable under the Act.

Best regards

Rob Davis

RE: Agenda Item 6.4 2022 Municipal and School Board Election – Clerk’s Review of Campaign Contributions – R. Davis COMPLIANCE AUDIT MEETING JUNE 29, 2023

Please see the attached correspondence sent to Ms Cindy-Ann Williams on Monday June 26, 2023.

The letter provides a brief explanation of why my in-kind contribution did not exceed the allowable limit of $1200 as prescribed in the Municipal Elections Act. The unit cost per sign was $2.41. As an experienced political operative, I purposely withheld one sign and kept it in my possession in order not to exceed the contribution limit. That sign is still in my possession. (See APPENDIX I) Thus, my in-kind donation was $1198.00.

I believe Ms. Williams erroneously listed the full purchase price of 500 lawn signs in her campaign financial filing and not the value of the 499 signs actually donated in-kind to her campaign. I expect Ms Williams will take the opportunity afforded to her to amend her filing in order to accurately reflect my modest donation to her campaign.

Feel free to contact me if you have any further questions.

Best regards,

Rob Davis
